BATTLE OF THE CLANS.

THE SKIRMISHING GETTING RED HOT IN CHICAGO.

The Pacific Coast Delegation Enthusiastic for the Plumed Knight—Colorado Ditto. Alabama Divided—Interview With Depew—Other Political Notes.

CHICAGO, June 18.—From now until the opening of the convention the battle of the various factions will be waged in earnest. With the arrival of the Californians and their Blaine banners and badges; of Governor Foraker and other of the principal supporters of the Ohio senator; of the advance heralds of the New York delegation, including ex-Senator Platt, William Walter Phelps, ex-Collector Merrill and Frank Hisecock, and of other active partisans of favorite sons from a score of states; what for the past three days has been a friendly skirmish will be turned into a red hot contest.

Around the various headquarters there is a good deal of talk regarding the significance of the combined forces in the National committee. The question at issue was that of placing on the roll as delegates the Virginia delegation headed by Mahone, and allowing the Grover delegation to be seated in the preliminary organization as contestants. Lynch, of Mississippi, Evans, of Kentucky, and Brownlow, of Tennessee, were among the most vigorous supporters of Mahone. The Shermanites and Greshamites upon the committee were to a man on the same side, but when the roll was called they found themselves defeated by 18 to 12.

At the headquarters of the two candidates in question it is claimed that the vote had no special significance, but at the parlors where the Alger, Harrison and Allison supporters hold the fort it is loudly asserted that the result was of special moment as showing the strength of Sherman and Gresham against the field.

Chauncey M. Depew will ask the New York delegation to present his name to the convention if he decides to enter the race. The Gresham, Alger, Harrison and Allison men are about holding their own, though Alger is weaker on account of the likelihood of New York presenting Depew, it having been much talked during the past few days that ex-Senator Platt would try to throw his state for the Michigan candidate.

Only about one hundred delegates had arrived last night, mostly assistant managers for the candidates.

The break of John Sherman's columns that is the most serious one, is in the Pennsylvania delegation. Senator Quay cannot control it against Fittler. As mayor of Philadelphia, with three years yet to serve, Fittler has patronage which Quay will need. The Fittler movement had its origin with Editor Smith, of the Philadelphia press, Mr. Blaine's personal friend. Smith will secure a proxy, and will place the mayor in nomination, not in the hope that any result will attain save to hold Quay away from Sherman. So long as Fittler has votes outside of Pennsylvania, Quay will support him. These were to be loaned from other states to keep Sherman's support at bay.

Blaine is a decided favorite, and there are many who believe he will be the nominee. The Pacific coast delegation to the National Republican convention received a right royal welcome upon its arrival here. Long before that hour the Union depot was one mass of surging humanity stretching itself upon the broad stairway and far out into the street. It was a Blaine crowd and for a time had everything its own way. At frequent intervals cheers for the Maine statesman were called for and given with vigor. Presently, however, a delegation of the Cook County Gresham club, about one hundred strong, appeared upon the scene, and proceeded to distribute badges of their candidate. Plenty of the multitude accepted the favors and attached them to their coats, but they kept up their cheering for Blaine just the same.

Very soon another diversion was created by arrival of the Young Men's Blaine club and the Irish-American club, to a total of 300. They brought with them a band of forty pieces, a profusion of American flags and a magnificent blue, silken banner with the inscription: "Blaine and Protection," and were heartily cheered by the crowd. When the gates were opened to allow them to take up a position alongside the tracks, the Greshamites tolled behind, and the last man had passed through before the porter was brought to a realization of the fact that he had made a mistake.

The members of the Blaine escort were anything but pleased at the tactics of their opponents, but they wisely held their peace. When, however, they had ranged themselves in a line facing the track upon which the train was to come in, and the Greshamites proceeded to do the same on the other side, until the two contingents stood vis a vis.

M. H. De Young, of San Francisco was the first to step from the train, and the hearty shout of welcome that went up from the escort in waiting was taken up by the throng on the other side of the barriers and repeated again and again, until the last of the party had left the cars.

Each man carried a cane, its head adorned with a miniature sheaf of wheat, a pine cone and the stars and stripes, while as an insignia they wore a red badge with a plain medal and grizzly bear pendant. In the center of the delegation a life-sized bust picture of Mr. Blaine was borne aloft and when this caught the eye of the crowd a mighty shout went up, while the visitors took off their hats and waved canes in the air.

The Greshamites brought up the rear of the procession. Both sides of the streets along the route from the depot to the Leland hotel were packed with people and the enthusiasm was unbounded.

Colorado for Blaine.
DENVER, Col., June 18.—The Colorado delegation to the Chicago convention left here Friday evening. The Colorado men are for Blaine first and last. "But," said a delegate just as the train pulled out, "if we find it impossible or unadvisable to nominate Mr. Blaine I am for Depew, and I know from conversation with the other five of our delegation that they are also Depew men."

About two hundred people left at 10 o'clock on a special train over the Union Pacific and about the same number, including the Union club and their friends, left Friday afternoon over the Rio Grand and Missouri Pacific, so there will be between four hundred and five hundred Coloradans at Chicago during the convention.

The Columbus Blaine Club.
COLUMBUS, O., June 18.—The Blaine club, at its meeting Friday night, became worked up to such a pitch that they broke forth in a street demonstration in behalf of Blaine, and burned fireworks from the windows of its club rooms. Thousands of people were attracted to the vicinity of the club. A resolution was adopted instructing the delegates from this district to vote for Blaine and Foraker in the convention and instructing the club to work for their nomination. Several speeches were made protesting against the one man idea in the state and claiming the right of Ohio to go to Chicago untrammelled by instructions for any one man. The action did not seem to have any sanction at official sources, nor did it have the delegates support or recognition of any of the delegates to Chicago as far as could be learned.

Alabama Delegates Divided.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 18.—The delegates to the National Republican convention from central and southern Alabama left Friday night. They will be joined at Birmingham by the delegates from the northern part of the state. It is learned on good authority that the delegation will be divided between Sherman, Alger and Blaine, with Sherman in the lead at the start. The three Blaine delegates will not admit that he is out of the race, and say they are going to Chicago to vote for their favorite.

Depew Interviewed.
NEW YORK, June 18.—Chauncey M. Depew, in an interview with a Mail and Express reporter, said that the issue in the campaign will be between protection and free trade. The president's message means free trade in spite of the attempts of the party leaders to show otherwise. The Republicans will on the protective policy. Mr. Depew says that if he finds western feeling so strong against railroad men as has been represented he will not be a candidate for nomination.

For Any Nominee but Gresham.
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 18.—The Connecticut delegation for the Chicago convention left this city Friday night. The party consisted of twelve delegates, twelve alternates and sixteen prominent men who go as invited guests. The delegates say they are for any nominee but Gresham.

The Mississippi Delegation.
JACKSON, Miss., June 18.—The Mississippi delegation left Friday night for the Chicago convention. The majority of the delegation is for Sherman, but Judge Gresham has some warm friends among the delegates and will doubtless receive several votes.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.
Work of the Supreme Lodge—The Result of the Band Tournament.
CINCINNATI, June 18.—The Knights of Pythias have gone hence as suddenly and far more quietly than they came among us. All of the knights from abroad, except those who are members of the supreme lodge, have departed. The drilling tournament was the last feature of the convocation in which the rank and file of the order participated. The supreme lodge will continue in session for another week.

Representative Copeland, of Nebraska, threw a bombshell into the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias, Friday, by offering resolutions prohibiting the admission of saloonkeepers into the order and providing for the expulsion of those who are already members. These resolutions were referred to the committee on the state of the order. In the afternoon this committee reported the resolutions back, recommending their indefinite postponement.

At the morning session a resolution was read from the grand lodge of Washington Territory endorsing the action of the supreme chancellor in suspending the grand lodge of Pennsylvania.

The supreme lodge adjourned in the afternoon until Monday, when the suspension of the Pennsylvania lodges by past supreme chancellor will be considered. The committee of seven will then make their report.

At the band tournament at Music hall Friday night, the Albin band of Muskegon, Mich., the Elgin Watch company's band, the Knights of Pythias band of Cleveland, O., Boos' Sixth regiment band of Tiffin, O., Ringgold's band of Terra Haute, Ind., and the First Regiment Knights of Pythias band of Whitehead, Ind., entered the contest.

Adam Weber, Max Esberger and John A. Brockhoven were the judges.

The first prize of $500 was awarded to the Elgin band; second prize, $300, to Boos' band of Tiffin, and the third prize, $150, to the Knights of Pythias band, of Cleveland.

An Army Deserter Suicides.

CHICAGO, June 18.—About 12:30 o'clock last night a young man shot and killed himself in front of the postoffice building. From papers in the man's pocket it was found that his name was Robert L. Hammond, alias Kennedy, and that he was evidently a deserter from the United States army. Other papers showed that he was born in Toronto, he had a St. Paul pawn ticket for a watch dated May 30, 1888, and a receipt from the United States Express company, dated June 2, 1888, for a collection of $70, balance of account at Peoples' bank, New York. Another showed his promotion in the service as a corporal.

A Tinner's Fatal Fall.

CINCINNATI, June 18.—Michael Goodling, a tinner, living at 25 Clifton avenue, while laying tar plate on the roof of a new building at 632 Main street, fell backward and was precipitated fifty feet to the ground. A frame building broke his fall, but he was probably fatally injured. His left ankle was broken, his body bruised, and it is feared he was internally injured in such a way as may cause death. Dr. Bailey gave him medical assistance. He was removed to his home. He is only twenty-five and lives with relatives.

ZANESVILLE, O., June 18.—Mary Tompkins, aged three years, was struck in the stomach by a ball thrown by a half-grown colored boy at the school children's picnic Friday afternoon, and received internal injuries which proved fatal.

THE REVIEW OF THE WEST

AS REPORTED BY R. G. DUN & COMPANY.

Uncertainty Continues to Prevail—Money Overabundant—Trade Generally Below that of Last Year—Failures Still Numerous on the Pacific Coast.

NEW YORK, June 18.—R. G. Dun & Company's review ending Saturday, June 16, says:

The moderate improvement in trade noticed a week ago does not yet seem to be more than the slight reaction which occasionally breaks a period of uncertainty and comparative inactivity. The signs of a lasting improvement in trade do not yet appear. Uncertainty still prevails, and buyers are conservative, confining their transactions to immediate wants in most branches of business. In some, moreover, the cold and wet spring has so far curtailed trade that retailers are carrying overstocks larger than usual.

There is uncertainty about the tariff, and its effect upon many branches of manufacture; about the crops and the foreign demand for exportable products; about transportation rates in the near future, and about financial prospects.

Crop prospects have not changed for the worse, but the extent of loss in winter wheat is more definitely realized, while the prospect as to spring wheat and other crops is necessarily vague. With favorable weather, the general results would probably be fair, and in some quarters a decidedly hopeful feeling begins to prevail. Want of confidence in the near future is the prevailing tone in all the markets.

This cannot be attributed to financial influences, for money is over abundant and quoted at 1 per cent. here, notwithstanding the renewal of good exports. The treasury has raised its prices paid for bonds, taking a large amount one day, but the only considerable offers since have been $2,000,000 at one-eighth above its new limit for four, and a like amount three-eighths above its limit for four-and-a-halfs. There is a growing impression that bonds will not be forthcoming at acceptable figures, if it becomes important for the treasury to make large disbursements. During the past week the treasury has taken in a million and a half more than it has paid out, but the banks still receive some money from the interior, though at some northwestern points money is now going into the country and not to the east. There is no report of stringency or closeness anywhere, but complaints of slow collections do not diminish.

The volume of trade of interior cities is very good at Omaha and Minneapolis, but generally below that of last year. The exports of principal products in May were larger in value by 15 per cent. than in the same month of 1887, but because of the heavy cotton shipments. The exports from New York for the past two weeks show a decrease of 15 per cent. with only a slight decrease in imports. The iron trade manifests no improvement, though sales of 30,000 tons of steel rails are reported for $30 at mill, and the allotment is said to be disregarded by some eastern makers. Southern pig is quoted at $17 for No. 1, but the quality is not in all cases found satisfactory. Bar iron is weaker, with 1.75c to 1.80c quoted for large lots of best refined. In the dry goods business there is a lack of activity, and yet in cotton goods a more confident feeling, with print cloths higher at 3.87c and low grades of bleached goods very firm.

Woolens are still dull, with very good transactions for men's goods, and wool is quoted lower at Chicago. Speculators have bought considerable quantities of southwestern wool in the belief that there will be no change of duties, and hold at prices above the market. The spring trade in wholesale clothing does not seem to have been very satisfactory, and it is believed that retailers carry over unusually large stocks, though prices have been remarkably low.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number, for the United States 209, and for Canada 23, or a total of 232, as compared with 235 last week, and 205 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 213, made up of 193 in United States and 20 in Canada. Failures are still numerous on the Pacific coast, the number from that section this week being 42.

International Typographical Union.

KANSAS CITY, June 18.—The session of the International Typographical union was principally devoted to the discussion of the new constitution. The principal changes in the constitution adopted were: A biennial convention instead of annual conventions; the payment of the delegates ($4 per day and railroad fare) to be paid by the International body instead of the local bodies. The constitution as reported was then adopted as far as Article 6, Section 6, when a great deal of discussion followed. Several amendments were offered and voted down. This section is in regard to strikes, and transfers the power to call out a strike from a subordinate to the executive council. It finally carried. An unsuccessful effort was made to transfer the headquarters from Indianapolis to Cleveland, O.

Killed By a Horse.

CINCINNATI, June 18.—Sol. Strauss, aged sixteen, employed to ride horses at Pat. Fox's auction stables, 15 East Fifth street, was thrown from a runaway horse at Fifth and Walnut at 11 a. m. He struck the ground violently, and his forehead was crushed in, besides receiving other injuries. He was removed to his home at 143 Barr street, and will die. The horse was a fresh arrival at the stable, wild and vicious. In running away it first ran onto the pavement in front of the government building and then shot madly across the street, throwing young Strauss almost in front of Cavagna's grocery. Its front foreleg was broken, and to put it out of its misery it was killed.

Collision on a "Y."

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 18.—Two freight trains on the New York Central collided about 1 o'clock this afternoon on the "Y" north of the Belt line crossing at Broadway. One of the engines was ditched and wrecked, the fireman and engineer injured, the latter fatally.

DESTRUCTIVE STORMS.

Considerable Damage Reported From New York and Vicinity—Elsewhere.

NEW YORK, June 16.—A most severe thunderstorm struck this city Friday evening a little after 8 o'clock, and did a good deal of damage. The storm was accompanied by a drenching rain and lasted over an hour.

In the harbor near Bedloe's Island the sloop yacht Agnes was capsized by the hurricane, and one of the crew, Charles F. Anderson, drowned. Three others of the crew were rescued with great difficulty, after having clung to the bowsprits of the disabled yacht for several hours.

On Staten Island the scenery prepared for Kiralfy's big show, "Rome Under Nero," was wrecked and about a dozen boys were more or less injured.

At Erasmus 30,000 people in attendance at Buffalo Bill's Wild West show were thoroughly drenched. The electric light wires became deranged and left the place in total darkness. A panic ensued but it is not known that any person was seriously injured.

In Minnesota and Dakota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 18.—Further advice from northern Minnesota and Dakota indicate that the losses by the severe storm of Wednesday night and Thursday will be heavy.

At Forman, Dak., the storm approached the magnitude of a tornado, traversing the country from northwest to southeast. Several buildings were blown down, and one or two were destroyed by lightning.

At Rutland, eight miles southeast of Forman, the new opera house was completely destroyed, Dyste Brothers' store was blown down, Ross' store was wrecked, and a building adjoining the Journal office was carried away. A dwelling house was also upset, and numerous barns and other buildings were badly damaged. No loss of life is yet reported.

At Fergus falls the wind was terrific. A building belonging to H. S. Cole was demolished, and the Grant hotel seriously damaged. There was an enormous fall of rain.

At Aitkin, Minn., the Mississippi is raging. The water has completely submerged the residence portion of Hungerford's addition, and many families have been compelled to vacate their homes. The back water in Mud river has caused hundreds of families along its banks to leave. The water is higher than it has been for fourteen years, and farmers are out on rafts after their cattle. All wires are down at St. Vincent, Minnesota, Medicine Hat, Quappelle and other points in the line of the storm.

The Flood at Cloquet, Wisconsin.

SUPERIOR, Wis., June 18.—The flood at Cloquet is receding quite rapidly, and the situation is rather brighter for those who have thus far been able to save their property. Several million feet of the runaway logs from Cloquet entered the Bay of Superior, but are being picked up and made into rafts. Several hundred people have been rendered temporarily homeless at Cloquet and Fond du Lac by the flood, but it is expected that their condition can be bettered soon. The loss to the C. N. Nelson Lumber company is estimated at from $100,000 to $200,000, and the total loss to Cloquet at $500,000.

Cloudburst in Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 18.—A disastrous windstorm and cloudburst was reported Friday at Arlington, Ore. Willow creek became a furious torrent. Several buildings at Lexington were wrecked. The storm first struck a grove below Lexington and blew down a house belonging to U. J. Brooks. Mrs. Brooks was fatally injured, and died from the effects. The house of H. A. Perkins was totally wrecked. Perkins was sick in the house at the time, and sustained serious injuries.

Oil Tanks Struck By Lightning.

PASADENA, N. J., June 18.—Lightning struck and set fire to the oil tanks of the National Transit company, at Saddle River, Friday night. About $30,000 worth of oil was consumed.

The Right Kind of Love.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., June 18.—There was a remarkable scene at the Stearns county jail Friday afternoon. Mary Esther Gorro, of Vendale, Minn., and Arthur Makepiece, who has just been sentenced to serve ten years in state's prison for forgery, were married by Justice H. G. Wire at the earnest solicitations of the girl. The bride, who is very handsome, came to this city upon Makepiece's incarceration, and stopped at the Grand Central under the name of Beulah Dewill. There is no indication that the young man will be pardoned, and the act of the girl, who is undoubtedly entirely sane, is evidently backed up by true love. She says she will go to live with her folks in Iowa until Makepiece regains his liberty.

Murder and Lynching.

SALIDA, Col., June 18.—During a saloon row at Mowbray last night a one-legged gambler named Schenck shot and killed George Davis and fatally wounded an unknown man. A mob afterwards took Schenck out and hanged him to a telegraph pole. Friends of the two dead men are gathering, and more trouble is feared.

Dias De Bara Guilty.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The jury in the Dias De Bara case brought in a verdict of guilty.

One of the newest vests is of shirred tucks, made by taking a length and a half of stuff, and, after tucking with strong threads, drawing them up to the proper shortness.

A Lexington Party's Opinion of the Maysville and Big Sandy. Its Cost.

A negro man was arrested in Metcalfe County a few days ago charged with breach of the peace. He demanded a jury trial, with colored jurors, which the Magistrate before whom the case was tried allowed. The offense was clearly proven and the court instructed the jury not to exceed $20 and the costs of the fine. The jury was out half an hour and

AN OPEN SWITCH

Causes a Serious Wreck on the Maysville and Big Sandy.

Three Men Injured and Ten Cars Badly Damaged.

The construction train which passed up over the new road Saturday evening about 5 o'clock was badly wrecked just east of Cabin Creek.

The train consisted of thirty-six flat-cars drawn by engine No. 351, one of the largest and best engines on the road. Chris Scott had hold of the throttle. The train had distributed a load of gravel along the track near Broshears' warehouse, Charleston Bottom, and was en route to the gravel pits opposite Manchester Island with the empties.

Just east of Cabin Creek is a side-track two or three hundred yards long. This side-track extends down to within a few feet of the bridge. When the train struck this switch Saturday evening the big engine tried to take both tracks. The inevitable result was that it didn't take either, but left both and went bowling along over the ties for some distance. It finally landed right side up and but little damage between the two tracks. The next instant ten of the flats were piled up in one mass between the switch and the engine. Broken timbers and trucks were scattered about in confusion. There is an embankment on either side of the tracks, and the momentum of the train had jammed the wrecked cars in against each other something in the shape of a rail-fence. Two or three of the flats were turned end over end and piled onto each other bottom side up, with trucks gone. Twenty-six of the cars stopped on the bridge and this side and were not damaged.

There were only ten or fifteen hands on the train at the time, the rest of them having fortunately laid off, as the week's work was over. Only three, all colored, sustained any injury. Dudley Simms was thrown against a sharp rock and sustained a fracture of the skull, over the left eye. He was otherwise bruised, but was sitting up yesterday morning, and is doing as well as could be expected. Simms is a married man, and his home is at Winchester. He is being cared for at the hospital near the rock-crusher. Lewis Sellers, a Virginia negro, had an arm sprained, and one side of his face badly bruised. The name of the third one injured was not learned. He saw the engine leave the track, and at once jumped from the car, sustaining a sprained arm.

Dr. G. M. Phillips, the company's physician, is attending to the wounded.

Superintendent Roberts had a force of hands engaged yesterday with engine No. 350 removing the wreck. The work will probably be finished to-day.

The opinion of the train men is that some one had tampered with the switch and left it partly open, thus causing the accident.

Dr. Henson is one of the finest platform speakers in America, and this is one of his best lectures. It abounds in wit, humor and pathos, telling hits, and earnest, practical lessons. Admission 50 cents; no extra charge for reserved seats. Seats can be reserved at Harry Taylor's. Tickets for sale at Allen, Hall & Co.'s and the drug stores.

Last summer Dr. Henson delivered his lecture on "Fools" at Chautauqua, and was introduced by the President, Dr. J. H. Vincent, as follows: "Ladies and gentlemen, we will now have the pleasure of hearing a lecture on Fools, by one"—(a long pause and great laughter from the audience)—"of the wisest men in the country." When quiet had been restored Dr. Henson began his lecture by saying, "Ladies and gentlemen, I am not half so big a fool as Dr. Vincent—(a pause and shouts of laughter)—would have you think I am."

The contractors will endeavor to have the bridge completed across the river into Cincinnati and running trains over it by the 1st of January. In another week the Cincinnati channel pier will be completed. This bridge, when finished, will have a double track, besides a wagon and foot ways.

TRAVELING IN EUROPE.

THE NEW PASSPORT SYSTEM VERY ANNOYING TO TOURISTS.

None More Patient Than the Americans. The Effect of Frederick's Death Quite Marked in England—The Funeral to Be Private—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, June 18.—No travelers excel Americans in patiently enduring the petty annoyances of travel, but several of those who have recently returned from the continent speak in anything but complimentary terms of the new passport system affecting the Alsace-Lorraine districts. Having been turned back from the frontier in consequence of having failed to comply with the new formalities requisite, they were compelled to enter Germany by the way of Switzerland, incurring additional expense and undergoing a delay which interfered seriously with their settled plans of travel.

Strasbourg cathedral is one of the recognized sights of Europe, but tourists will prefer being deprived of its inspection, rather than submit to the trouble and hindrance of the cast-iron regulations intended for the vexation of Frenchmen, but more seriously affecting others and totally innocent foreigners.

No spy worthy of his profession can be kept out of the embargoed territory by the new rules. Thousands of ex-residents, familiar with every byroad and forest, would find no difficulty in eluding the frontier guards, and would be aided and secreted by the inhabitants in case of need. The landlords and shopkeepers of the larger cities are complaining bitterly of the falling off of trade incident to the practical exclusion of travelers and the general prosperity of the annexed territories cannot fail to be somewhat affected. In the hope of preventing French spies from entering Alsace-Lorraine, the Germans have earned the hearty ill will of English and American tourists who formerly spent a considerable amount of money on their passage toward Berlin and Vienna.

It may be safely asserted that three-fifths of the inhabitants of the conquered provinces do, or would, in case of need, furnish information willingly and without cost to their former brethren, and that every movement of any importance around them is speedily known to the French authorities. The German spies, who, to believe the Gallican accounts, are as numerous as Belfort, Nanoy, Verdun and even at Paris, as flies in summer, on the other hand labor under the serious disadvantage of pursuing their honorable calling amid a hostile and intensely suspicious people.

The North German Gazette asserts that the accusation of belonging to the secret service fraternity is made the pretext for driving German workmen out of France, and that Germans carry their lives in their hands while resting on French soil.

Mourning Visible Everywhere.

LONDON, June 18.—The effect of the emperor's death throughout England is much more marked than was that of the death of his father, and in Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Glasgow and other commercial and manufacturing centers, business is for the time almost entirely suspended. In London signs of mourning are everywhere visible, particularly among the German business houses, many of which closed their doors upon receipt of the news, while the bells of several of the leading churches were tolled, as a mark of respect to the memory of the dead monarch.

The German embassy was besieged with condoling visitors all the afternoon. Among the callers were most of the members of the British ministry, the Duke of Cambridge, Baroness Burdett-Coutts, and M. Waddington, the French ambassador. The ceremony of unveiling Wallace's monument at Aberdeen by the Marquis of Lorne has been postponed, and a large number of social events have been deferred until the stated period of mourning shall have passed.

The English press have already begun to speculate upon the political effect of the change of Germany's imperial administration.

The St. James Gazette says: "Whatever the upshot, we believe that the tragic death of Frederick III. will at least have the effect of suspending whatever designs may exist for settling troubles now prevalent in Europe by an appeal to the sword. One thing we say in confidence. If the English government has not yet decided upon the part it means to play in certain contingencies it will very soon have to make up its mind."

Within an hour after the news of the emperor's death had become public a large number of houses were draped with mourning emblems, and many citizens had donned black attire. Dr. Von Lauer was the first to announce the end to those waiting at the doors of the castle.

The mayor of Rome telegraphed to Herr Von Forckenbeck, mayor of Berlin: "Rome, sharing always the joys and sorrows of Italy, mourns with Germany the loss of a heroic soldier and virtuous prince."

It is stated that the proclamation of Emperor William II., upon assuming the rulership of the German empire, will refer to the alliances of Austria-Hungary and Italy as guarantees of European peace.

General mourning for the emperor will be observed for six weeks and all public amusements will be suspended for two days after the funeral.

In spite of the great distance of the American capital from Berlin, President Cleveland's message of sympathy and condolence was the third communication of this character to reach the emperor after the emperor's death.

The Swiss National council has adopted resolutions of condolence over the death of Emperor Frederick. M. Zemp, president of the council, pronounced an eulogy of the dead emperor.

Count Von Munster, German ambassador at Paris, has notified Premier Gabel that the funeral of the late Emperor Frederick will be private, and will be attended only by the relatives of the reigning houses of the empire. France will not, therefore, send a representative to the funeral.

The Paris papers all express deep sympathy for the bereaved empress and sorrow at the death of the emperor, to the beauty of whose moral nature justice is done.

Royalty En Route to Berlin. LONDON, June 18.—The Prince of Wales, Prince Albert Victor, Prince Christian, Duke Paul of Mecklenburg-Schwerin and the Marquis of Lorne have started for Berlin. The court circular announces for the Prince of Wales that the future program of home affairs for the present are either postponed or cancelled.

A FATAL EXPLOSION.

Several Buildings Blown Up at Zanesville, Ohio—Four Fatally Injured.

ZANESVILLE, O., June 18.—A terrific explosion succeeded by several second ones at 12:30 p. m. startled the whole city. Closely following was a fire alarm from Box 5, in the heart of the business portion. Those in the neighborhood saw the large two-story brick warehouse of Bailey Brothers & Company in the rear of the building on Main, between Fifth and Sixth, with several surrounding frame buildings rise in the air and fall with a crash in a heap.

A team of horses which stood at the door of the warehouse was almost covered with the debris, and Charles Murphy, a farmer, blown out of his wagon in passing.

The awful extent of the disaster was not realized until Ahner Grayson, a colored em-ploee, climbed out of the flaming mass, burned and bruised from head to foot. Then the mangled body of William Miner, a drayman, who was supposed to be dying, was recovered.

Several others of the employees escaped with slight injuries. Mort. Bailey, son of Frank P. Bailey, was in the building, and his body was buried under the ruins.

John Lehman, driver for E. P. Bloomer, was in the stable adjoining, but managed to get from the wreck with severe but not fatal injuries. Jesse Carder, colored, employed by Bailey Brothers, was taken from the wreck badly burned.

Miner, who was taken out after the explosion, cannot live. Grayson, it is said, has inhaled the flames and his injuries will prove fatal.

The house is the largest wholesale drug firm in southeastern Ohio, and the warehouse was filled with gasoline, paints, oils, etc., which ignited from some cause yet unknown. The loss will not be less than $10,000.

LATER.—Instead of a barrel of gasoline, it was flux seed oil that exploded while being hauled up from the cellar. At about 2 o'clock Morton Bailey's body was found in the cellar, shrivelled and contracted. He had evidently burned to death.

The Steel Workers.

PITTSBURG, June 18.—For the first time in the history of the association the conference committee, representing the manufacturers, appeared at the convention hall of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, and addressed the convention, favoring a general reduction in wages. A portion of the delegates were favorably impressed by the manufacturers' argument. It is rumored that the manufacturers may agree to the scale of 1880-7, which would be equivalent to a general 10 per cent. reduction. An Amalgamated Association delegate said that the feeling of the convention was to stand firm against a reduction. The conference on the wage question will be resumed.

BOLD YANKEE BURGLARS

Make a Desperate and Successful Haul in a Gold and Silver Refinery.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., June 18.—Two masked men entered the refinery of Barber & Burlingame, situated a little out of the village, Thursday night and took $1,400 worth of gold in ribbons and nuggets and silver in granulated form from the safe.

The watchman, Isaac Lord, and his son Eddie, aged thirteen, were in the building at 11:30 when the boy called to his father to come and stop the dog barking. The man entered the office, and hearing a slight noise near the front door, opened an inner door to the entry. He had just done so when the outer door was forced in.

One man grabbed him and a second held a revolver at his head, telling him if he kept quiet he would not be harmed. They bound both father and son and laid them in front of a counter, where they could not see what was done. They threw a cloth over the man's face.

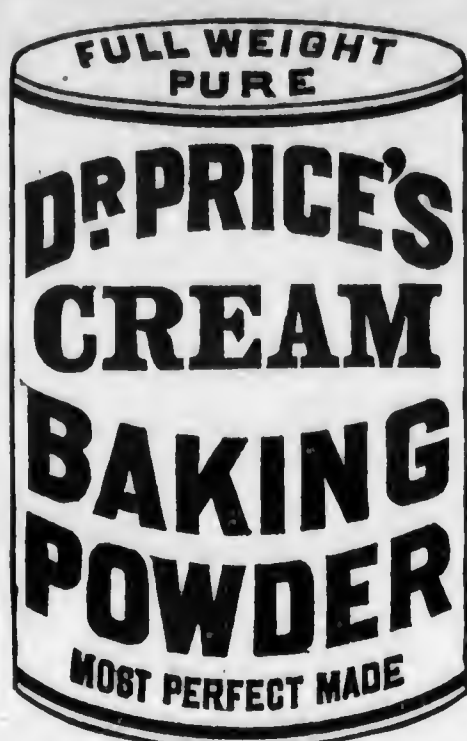

He feels sure there was a third person watching outside. The two men who did the job were of medium size and height and were clothed in blue checked jumpers and pantaloons of a peculiar pattern. They tore the lock from the safe and literally tore the door and front casing around it into strips. There work was completed at twenty minutes to two. The robbers then took Lord and laid him on a cot bed, expressing the wish that he might rest better there. He worked himself loose about 4 o'clock, released the boy and summoned Sheriff Capron. There is no clew to the robbers except a few footprints, a small penknife with several kinds of blades and the suits worn. Most of the tools used and left behind were taken from a blacksmith shop near by. The affair causes great excitement, as several similar affairs have occurred here within a couple of years.

Beneath His Notice.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Senator Edmunds recently wrote a letter to Hon. Melville W. Fuller, informing him that charges of corruption had been made against him by a person whose name, under the rules of the senate, could not be revealed, who alleged that Fuller had acted crookedly in the purchase of land for a boulevard in connection with the West Side park. Mr. Fuller declines to reply to anonymous aspersions on his character, but has received the permission of Senator Edmunds to make the correspondence public. Judge Loomis, who presided in the county court during the transaction, says there cannot be any truth in the charge, as the land was not acquired by purchase, but by condemnation proceedings.

Fast Running.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 18.—G. H. Sherrill, Jr., 49, Yale's famous sprint runner, broke two American amateur records and tied another yesterday. He ran 200 yards in 25.4 seconds, beating Lou Meyers' record of 26 seconds. In a second trial of 100 yards, with a timer at 145 yards he made the 125 yards in 12.3 seconds, tying Weddell Barker's record and the 150 yards in 16 seconds, beating Harry Brooks' record of 15.1 seconds.
